Remarks

A Mid-Century Modern Retreat Where Architecture and Nature Become One Set gracefully on 2 beautifully manicured acres in Kennett Township, this exceptional 1963 Mid-Century Modern residence is a rare expression of architecture, landscape, and indoor-outdoor living. Designed to harmonize with its natural surroundings, the home feels less like a house placed within a garden and more like a private retreat woven into the landscape itself. From the moment you arrive, the connection to nature is unmistakable. Mature specimen trees, layered gardens, sculptural plantings, flowering shrubs, and sweeping lawns create a sense of privacy and discovery at every turn. The grounds have been thoughtfully cultivated over decades, offering a remarkable tapestry of texture, color, and seasonal interest. A serene in-ground pool (heated) is tucked into the lush landscape, while a charming pergola and garden sitting area provide an intimate destination for morning coffee, afternoon reading, or evening conversation. The architecture embraces the very best ideals of Mid-Century Modern design.
